

Spring & Summer walk. Fatigue level: comfortable. Distance: 4.7Km (round trip). Duration: approx 1.5 hrs.

Fontane to Valpiana, Valpiana to Alpe Giavine (857m)

An easy walk along the made-up road, with only the occasional steeper gradient to negotiate. This walk takes you to the torrent below Valpiana - the large stones provide a fantastic place to sit or lie and take in the sun on a nice day, with the sound and freshness of the rushing, icy cold alpine water around you.

First take the path down from our apartments to the road, then follow the road down to Parcineto.

At Parcineto go right, up the incline and follow the road to Valpiana where there is a nice cappella - also look out for Snow White and the seven dwarfs - then down towards the bridge over the torrent.

On the left, the path leads to the Alpe Dorchetta. Beyond the light and gradually climbs, with the torrent to Alpe Giavine is a small alpine pasture, located at the foot of the mountain. It is a beautiful spot for a picnic or a rest during your hike.
